*From the fullness
of the heart the mouth speaks.
(Luke 6:45)*

What were the last words that came out of your mouth? It's a question you might nervously ask yourself after today's readings. Sirach warns that everyone is tested by their words, since "one's speech disclose[s] the bent of one's mind" (27:6). Similarly, Jesus tells us, "From the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks" (Luke 6:45). In other words, your words reveal what's important to you, what is at the forefront of your thoughts and desires.

If you were to keep track of everything you say in the course of a day, you'd discover that your heart is filled with many different things: gratitude, worry, trust, frustration, fear, ambition, or love. A setback in the morning might trigger an angry outburst, but later in the day, it might prompt you to offer a few words of prayer and trust in the Lord. A disappointment might provoke a bitter complaint, or it might cause you to thank God for the many ways he is already taking care of you.

We all struggle. The good news is that, as Sirach says, "The fruit of a tree shows the care it has had" (27:6). That means it's possible to change what fills your heart and comes out of your mouth. How? By allowing Jesus to care for you. The more you receive his care, the more your "fruit" will improve. As your heart is filled with his love, your words will be more loving and kind.

So take heart! Let Jesus convince you of his compassion. Come and receive the richness of his mercy. Let these attributes fill your heart, and it will become easier to speak words of forgiveness or understanding when you are wronged. Let him show you how he is fulfilling his promises in your life, even in ways you can't predict, so that you can become more patient and trusting when life gets hard. Let his word shape your words.

*"Lord, fill my heart with what is pleasing to you."
(Excerpt from The WORD Among Us)*

"In the Lord your labour is not in vain". Is the Lord calling you to work in His vineyard? Pray to hear God's call. If God is calling you, to be a priest, religious or deacon, contact Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997.
