Whoever receives a prophet because he is a prophet . . . (Matthew 10:41)

So who exactly are these “prophets” Jesus is talking about?

In the early Church, it was common for men and women to be commissioned by the Church as traveling prophets. Their calling was to visit other churches and speak God’s word to them, just as Jesus sent out his disciples in today’s Gospel. They were called prophets because they were recognized as being able to speak God’s words under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. It was considered an honor to welcome such a person into your home and care for him while he ministered to your church—as the woman in today’s first reading cared for the Old Testament prophet Elisha.

As time went on, however, false prophets began to set themselves up in opposition to the local church leaders. Their presence and their messages caused division and confusion. Because it was fraught with controversy, the practice faded, and the official role of prophet fell to local bishops instead.

But that doesn’t mean that ordinary prophets disappeared from the Church. In fact, they’re all around us today. You may even be one! That’s because a prophet is nothing more—and nothing less—than someone through whom the Holy Spirit speaks.

That means that your spouse might be speaking prophetically when he or she encourages you to keep up with your prayer time. Or a child coming to you in the middle of the night might be bearing a prophetic message: Time to deny yourself, take up your cross, and care for this little one. And you may be a prophet when you tell a coworker about God’s work in your life.

God is always speaking to us. He’s always trying to get our attention. He’s always asking us to welcome his messengers into our lives. Even the ones we least expect.

“Holy Spirit, help me to hear you speaking through the people you will place in my path today.”

MASS INTENTIONS

The parishioners of All Saints have always been so generous with their contributions not only to ShareLife but with other initiatives as well. Even though we are in the midst of the Covid-19 pandemic, the giving spirit at our Church has not been dampened. The ShareLife 2020 committee is pleased to announce that we have raised $45,000 thus far. Again, thank you for your support.

This is a great beginning and yet we still have a ways to go toward reaching our goal of $132,500. The people who depend on ShareLife both within and outside our parish need our support – perhaps now during this unprecedented time more than ever.

If you are in a position to offer assistance during this difficult time, please consider an offering to ShareLife. You can donate:

By cheque made payable to “ShareLife – All Saints’ Parish” which you can drop in the new Parish mailbox slot OR Online at <https://www.sharelife.org/public/donate> (Please select All Saints’ Parish, Etobicoke in the donation information Parish drop-down box)

Thank you for your consideration.
