*I do will it. Be made clean.
(Mark 1:41)*

If you suffered from a disease that rotted your flesh and deadened your nerves, as this leper did, you wouldn't deny your need for healing, would you? No, the problem would be obvious. You'd almost instinctively cry out to the Lord for help. But what about other kinds of wounds that may not be so obvious?

For example, if you tend to overreact or become extremely anxious, even over minor issues, you might need to reach out to Jesus for an emotional healing, perhaps with the help of a trained counselor. Maybe you find you are in a difficult relationship, one filled with tension and stress. Jesus could heal that relationship by showing you how to love that person better. Or if you're harboring unforgiveness and resentment, you may need God's grace to help you forgive. You might be stuck in a sin pattern that you don't want to face, and so you avoid bringing it into the light and receiving God's mercy in Confession.

It's tempting to think that we can handle such situations on our own. Or we might not even recognize that these are things that Jesus can heal. But what Jesus said to the man in this story, he says to us: "I do will it. Be made clean" (Mark 1:41). He wants to heal us of anything that doesn't reflect his will for our lives.

Today, ask the Holy Spirit to help you become aware of just one area of your life in which you need his healing touch. How might unhealed wounds be holding you back or causing pain to yourself or someone around you? How might they be leading you away from God and into sin?

We all accumulate wounds as we go through life, so don't get discouraged. Like this man with leprosy, just believe that Jesus has the will—and the power—to heal whatever ails you.

"Jesus, I need your healing touch today!" (Excerpt from The WORD Among Us)

Campaign Life Coalition Canada invites you to follow the 2021 National March for Life 100 countdown on www.facebook.com/MarchforlifeCanada and www.youtube.com/MarchforlifeCanada

Today's Gospel says that "Jesus was moved with pity when He saw a leper". Are you moved with love and compassion when you see the outcasts of today's society? Today, Jesus continues to call forward men and women to minister as he did. If you think God is calling you to be a priest, religious, or permanent deacon, contact Fr. Saturday Feb 20th - 9:00 am to 10:00am

Volunteers will be by the church doors and in the church parking lot to assist and guide you. They will ensure that we follow all social distancing rules and protocols and to keep everyone safe.

FASTING AND ABSTINENCE

Abstinence and Fasting are to be observed on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

Abstinence is to be observed on all Fridays through the year, but Catholics may substitute this practice with special acts of charity or piety on the other Fridays— it remains to be observed on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

Abstinence refrains from consumption of meat. This law pertains to everyone over fourteen years of age.

Fasting prescribes that only one meal be taken in a day, but it does not forbid taking more nourishment in the morning and in the evening, according to the needs of each individual. Fasting binds those between eighteen and sixty years of age. Individual cases, for just reason (e.g., the sick), receive dispensation from the obligation.

2020 INCOME TAX RECEIPTS

The Income Tax receipts for 2020 donations made to the Parish will be mailed directly by the Archdiocese of Toronto at the end of February. Any question, please send an email to taxreceipts@archtoronto.org or contact the Parish Office.

Dear Fellow, All Saints' Parishioners and Past Participants of our Guest Speaker Events,

Here is a Lenten preparation series webinar that you will not want to miss. Many of us participated in the three-part Inter-Faith Awareness series presented by Rev. Scott Lewis S.J. in February 2017. This year, in preparation for Easter 2021, Fr. Scott will present: New Interpretations of Holy Week. He will examine the Holy Week texts in light of recent theological trends and issues. Topics such as How to Read the Bible, difficult passages, violence and the meaning of the resurrection will be explored.

The sessions will be free of charge, in French or English, with live translation. They will also be recorded and posted on the Jesuits of Canada's website after the webinar presentation. Fr. Scott Lewis, SJ, teaches New Testament at Regis College, Toronto. He is also a weekly contributor of God's Word on Sunday in The Catholic Register.

Mark your Calendar: Tuesday nights, 7:00 p.m. 1 hr. + Q&A.

February 23 - How Not to Read the Bible

March 2 - Did Jesus Come to Die on the Cross?

March 9 - The Resurrection: Belief vs. Experience

All participants are required to fill in a very simple registration form in order to receive a webinar link by email. Register by clicking here: <http://bit.ly/HolyWeekStories>

All you have to do is write your prayer intentions on a piece of paper and drop it off in the parish mailbox or email them to allsaintsfaithful@gmail.com. Father & the faithful of our parish will lift up your intentions throughout the daily and weekend Masses. On Palm Sunday we will burn your intentions to create ashes as a symbol of our Lenten Journey.
