*... a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness
to Gentiles. (1 Corinthians 1:23)*

Pam was ready to buy an old table at a flea market when a man told her that it wasn't sturdy and would not hold up. While this presented a stumbling block, Pam bought it anyway.

In 1975, a friend told Jim about a new software company that he was thinking of investing in. Convinced it was a failure, Jim's dad called the investment a foolish waste of money, but Jim didn't listen. He went ahead and bought some shares of the stock.

Years later, Pam had her table appraised and discovered that it was a valuable antique worth fifty thousand dollars. Jim's investment in a little-known company called Microsoft had multiplied over and over again and made Jim a healthy sum of money.

A stumbling block? Foolishness? Perhaps. But these are the same words that St. Paul used in describing the gospel message. The image of a crucified Messiah was a stumbling block to Jews. Jesus' life and death did not match up with the way they had expected God to save them. Likewise, the philosophical Greeks could not fathom Paul's explanation of salvation. To them, it was nothing more than an odd, made-up story.

Still, a few Jews and Greeks accepted Paul's words, believed in Jesus, and gave their lives to him. And the one unique message that formed the foundation of the faith that they proclaimed? The message of a crucified and risen Messiah!

Two thousand years later, this same Jesus is at the center of our faith. This "foolish" gospel draws us together each Sunday. And how blessed we are to believe in such "folly"! We have a God who loves us so completely that he laid down his life for us. As we receive Jesus in the Eucharist today, let's allow the "folly" of that message to sink deeper into our hearts.

"Jesus, your love is greater than anything this world can offer. I embrace the 'folly' of your salvation."

(Excerpt from The WORD Among Us)

Jesus cleaned out the temple of money-changers. He was angry; He was zealous; He spoke with authority. He was doing what He had to do even though it involved risk, danger, insult and wonder. Such is a religious vocation in the Church. If you think God might be calling you to be a priest, religious, or permanent deacon, contact: Fr. ### A 40 DAY JOURNEY OF LENT AS A COMMUNITY

Lent is a time of prayer, penance and sacrifice, a time for the entire family to be more attentive to the words of Jesus and to each other. It is a time to try harder to put Christ's teachings into practice. It is a 40-day journey with Jesus. Lent means doing something as well as giving up something. Let us journey through these 40 days together by doing something.

Visit our Parish Blog at <https://allsaintset.archtoronto.org/> every day during Lent, to find daily prayers, good deeds and formational videos for the entire family. Let us take the challenge to draw closer to God together during this Lenten season.
