*He tried to join the disciples.
(Acts 9:26)*

There's a lot of adventure in today's first reading, isn't there? Paul,

fresh from escaping death threats in Damascus, arrives in Jerusalem, where he faces suspicion from Christians and an attempted murder from some Greek-speaking Jews.

Why so much drama? Quite possibly God was using all this upheaval to "prune" Paul, to further purify him from remnants of his old life (John 15:1-3).

We are so used to talking about the saints as if their holiness were a given, but that's rarely the case. For many of them, the road to holiness was as long and winding as it is for many of us. After all, we know that Paul had a strong, assertive personality. Humility doesn't always come easily!

By his own admission, Paul was "an arrogant man" before his conversion (1 Timothy 1:13). You can imagine how some of that arrogance might still have been present as he tried to convert people. Maybe the man who had once spent his life "breathing murderous threats" against Christians still needed to learn Jesus' teaching about being poor in spirit (Acts 9:1). So it's possible that God was using the chaos Paul encountered in Jerusalem to help him examine his heart and see where he still needed to change.

Anyone who has lived more than a few decades will tell you how valuable it is to be pruned by the Lord. They probably didn't enjoy it at the time, but looking back, they could appreciate the fruit of such pruning. Coming face-to-face with our selfishness or arrogance or resentments can move us to turn to Jesus and ask him to purify us and set us free.

So let Jesus prune you from time to time. He promises that if you do, you will bear "more fruit" (John 15:2). You'll become more like him, just as Paul did.

"Jesus, you are a wise and gentle gardener. Keep pruning me so that I can become more like you."

Pre-Authorized Giving (PAG) program

Many churches, including our own, are currently participating in the Pre-Authorized Giving (PAG) program adopted by our Archdiocese. Indeed, many of our own parishioners use the PAG plan through which your gift to our church is withdrawn from your bank account on a monthly basis.

The advantages to you:

1. convenience – your gift is received automatically every 20th of the month.
2. continual, uninterrupted support for our church.

You can choose to enroll in PAG by completing a simple form and providing a cheque marked “void” from your account. You can stop your PAG payments at any time and for any reason by contacting our parish office. The Pre-Authorized Giving Form (PAG) is also available online under About Us <https://allsaintset.archtoronto.org/About-Us/downloadable-forms>

Thank you for your support of our Church.
