Remember "All Saints' Parish" In Your Will

11th Sunday in Ordinary Time June 13th, 2021

We must all appear before

the judgment seat of Christ. (2 Corinthians 5:10)

The thought of appearing before the judgment seat of Christ at the end of our lives is, at best, unsettling. That's because we will receive recompense for what we have done, "whether good or evil" (2 Corinthians 5:10). We know the many times we have fallen short. So how can we have any hope that Jesus will welcome us into his heavenly kingdom?

First, we can remember that Jesus himself will be our judge. On the cross, he promised the criminal beside him, "Today you will be with me in Paradise" (Luke 23:43). He refused to condemn the woman caught in adultery (John 8:10-11). He welcomed tax collectors into his kingdom, including Matthew, who became one of the Twelve and a saint (Matthew 9:9-13). These Gospel stories give us reason to believe that he will treat us with mercy as well.

Second, while we may find it painful to remember some of our past sins and misdeeds, Jesus views our lives very differently. He won't see only our sins; he'll also see our good deeds—even the ones we weren't aware of. You may be surprised by the effects that your love has had on the people around you!

Finally, while we're still here on earth, we shouldn't burden ourselves worrying about whether we have done enough good works to earn a spot in heaven. Jesus has already saved us through his "one righteous act"—the shedding of his blood on the cross (Romans 5:18). Our good works are the way in which we respond to the love that God has already shown us.

At Mass today, place any fears you might have about Jesus' judgment into his loving, merciful hands. Remember that each day is a fresh start to "aspire to please" him in all things (2 Corinthians 5:9). Jesus is a judge, yes, but the most kind and merciful judge you will ever encounter!

"Jesus, I thank you for the mercy you show me each day."
