You disregard God's commandment but cling to human tradition. (Mark 7:8)

Given their strict attention to hand washing, these Pharisees and scribes would probably feel right at home in our pandemic-conscious world! Of course, they were concerned about religious purity, not personal hygiene, but we can all relate to how meticulous they were.

Still, Jesus rightly called their purity practices what they were: "human tradition" (Mark 7:8). Nowhere in Scripture does God command his people to be so rigorous in cleansing themselves or their household items. Instead, what began as a precaution among priests gradually morphed into a litmus test for every Israelite. If you didn't wash your hands just so, you were impure. It meant your faith was defective—or worse, you were defective.

Litmus tests can make things clear and simple, but the Pharisees were using them in the wrong way. To determine what was pure and impure, they needed to focus on what was lurking in their own hearts, not what was contaminating them from the outside. As Jesus warned them, it is "the things that come out from within"—our own sinful inclinations—that defile us (Mark 7:15).

Our rules for hand washing today are aimed toward preventing disease, but we can easily fall into the same habit as these Pharisees did. We can focus more on what's on the "outside"—the culture or the actions of other people—rather than facing the sinful desires in our hearts. After all, it's painful to see just how capable we are of falling into sin. It's easier just to apply a litmus test to the sins of the people around us.

Jesus came to save us from sin, and we can count on him to give us the grace to deal with whatever is "within" us. Today, ask the Lord to search your heart. Ask him to help you see ways in which you are susceptible to sin—and ask him to keep cleansing you.

"Jesus, purify my heart today!"

(Excerpt from The WORD Among Us)

Our second Scripture reading reminds us that "Every generous act of giving, with every perfect gift, is from above, coming down from the Father ...". God's gifts should prompt a response of gratitude, which should be the basis of our daily lives. If you feel God is offering you the gift of priesthood, religious life or diaconate, and you wish to respond generously, trusting in God, call Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997.

YOUTH MINISTRY

Calling all Youth in Grades 2 to 8

Open to all students (from any school or church) who want to have a safe place to socialize and make new friends, while having fun and learning more about our Catholic faith! We are hard at work planning for our youth ministries for the year ahead, and although plans may need to change or adjust, our faith in Christ and in the young remains strong. We invite families to consider signing up their children for one of our two youth groups. Little Saints (Gr. 2 – 4) and EDGE (Gr. 5 – 8). Discover these programs in the attached brochures and contact Anna at 1415allsaintsyouthministry@gmail.com for more information.

VOLUNTEERS/CATECHISTS

Needed for the Youth & Catechism Programs

We are always looking for talented high school teens, young adults, parents and grandparents, single or married, to serve in our youth ministries and sacramental preparation programs. We believe that a solid ministry is built on faith and relationship: between Jesus Christ, our volunteers, and our youth. Contact Anna at MBetro@archtoronto.org if interested.
