*He put his finger into the man's ears.
(Mark 7:33)*

If Jesus' actions in today's Gospel reading seem odd to you, you're probably not alone. It's not every day that you see someone placing his fingers in a man's ears or touching his tongue. But then again, this is the one who told his disciples to eat his body and drink his blood, who touched a man with leprosy, and who put mud on another man's eyes.

If you want to know what's behind all of this, it can probably be summed up in one word: intimacy. Not the romantic or sentimental kind of intimacy, but the compassionate kind. It's the intimacy of a God who loves his people, a God who humbles himself to enter into our wounded, muddled, messy lives so that he can offer his healing and salvation.

By touching this man's ears and tongue, Jesus singled out the parts of his body that had kept him trapped in isolation. He showed that he knew exactly what the man needed and that he wasn't afraid to deal with it. And through that physical touch, Jesus brought life back to him. The man was no longer trapped in silence. Now he could hear his loved ones' words. Now he could speak to them and share his heart with them.

Jesus is very close to you as well. He knows you better even than you know yourself. He sees the ways in which you have become isolated—whether through sin or fear or anxiety or sickness. Just as he sighed when he touched the deaf man, Jesus knows your pain and wants to set you free. So he asks you to let down your guard and allow him to come into your heart and heal whatever is hurting.

Today, Jesus will come to you in a very physical, personal way in the Eucharist. As you receive him, open your heart. Today, Jesus will come to you in a very physical, personal way in the Eucharist. As you receive him, open your heart. Let him enter the silence and messiness inside you so that he can set you free.

"Jesus, I welcome you into my heart. Come, Lord, with your healing touch."

(Excerpt from The WORD Among Us)

Did not God choose those who are poor in the eyes of the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the Kingdom? Count your blessings, then come and help others count theirs too, as a priest, religious or deacon. If you feel you have such a vocation, call Fr. ShareLife

Living the Gospel by supporting young parents

Thanks to generous donors like you, ShareLife agencies helped 150,000 people locally last year. They include 1,900 young pregnant and parenting women and their babies. These women take parenting classes, receive diapers and healthy food, and get one-on-one support as they complete their high school education. We have raised $101,931.00 thus far, our goal is to raise $132,500.00

We thank you for your generosity

The Pontifical Collection for the Holy Land

The Pontifical Collection for the benefit of the Holy Places was scheduled this year on Good Friday, April 2, 2021; given the circumstances, the Archdiocese of Toronto would hold the collection on September 11/12, 2021. This collection is to support Christians in the Holy Land. Many Christians in the Holy Land depend on the collection for their lives and to help to maintain not only the Holy Places above all, but also pastoral, welfare, educational and social works that the Church carries out to the benefit of the Christian brothers and sisters and the local population.

P.S. We would like to thank you if you have already dropped off your donation on Good Friday this year.

YOUTH MINISTRY

Calling all Youth in Grades 2 to 8

Open to all students (from any school or church) who want to have a safe place to socialize and make new friends, while having fun and learning more about our Catholic faith! We are hard at work planning for our youth ministries for the year ahead, and although plans may need to change or adjust, our faith in Christ and in the young remains strong. We invite families to consider signing up their children for one of our two youth groups. Little Saints (Gr. 2 – 4) and EDGE (Gr. 5 – 8). Discover these programs in the attached brochures and contact Anna at 1415allsaintsyouthministry@gmail.com for more information.

VOLUNTEERS/CATECHISTS

Needed for the Youth & Catechism Programs

We are always looking for talented high school teens, young adults, parents and grandparents, single or married, to serve in our youth ministries and sacramental preparation programs. We believe that a solid ministry is built on faith and relationship: between Jesus Christ, our volunteers, and our youth. Contact Anna at MBetro@archtoronto.org if interested.
