24th Sunday in Ordinary Time September 12th, 2021

*Faith of itself, if it does not have works, is dead.
(James 2:17)*

Think of your faith as a flame in your heart. It is first and foremost a gift from God, but it won't burn brightly unless you feed it. Without a fuel source, it will die out. We all know how to nourish our faith: with prayer, the sacraments, and God's word. But there's another "fuel" we can't do without, and that is good works.

Today's second reading is a stark reminder that our faith isn't just between the Lord and us. We are part of a body, the body of Christ, united through Jesus' death and resurrection. So when we are loving our neighbor, we are also loving the Lord, and that makes our flame of faith grow larger and burn more intensely.

We know that God calls us to care for our brothers and sisters in need—it's one of the ways we respond to the love he has already poured into our hearts. But in the day-to-day busyness and challenges of life, it's easy to become focused only on our own issues. It sometimes takes a deliberate effort to think beyond ourselves and our immediate families. That's partly because we often don't "see" the poor among us. But that doesn't mean they don't exist or don't need our help.

You are probably already performing many good deeds. Perhaps you are supporting a favorite charity, making meals for a shelter, or reaching out to a lonely neighbor. But whatever you are doing, ask Jesus from time to time if there is something more or different you should consider. As you pray, he may spark an idea for a new way to serve at your parish or move you with compassion to support people suffering in a country half a world away. Above all, he will be pleased that you care for the needs that are on his heart—and that you are doing all you can to keep the flame of faith alive in your own.

"Jesus, put the needs of your people on my heart, and show me how to care for them."

(Excerpt from The WORD Among Us)

"Who do people say that I am?" Who do you think Jesus is? The depth of our faith is rooted in our answer. Is God calling you to be a priest, religious, or deacon? If you think you are being called to be a priest, religious, or permanent deacon, call Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997.

YOUTH MINISTRY

Calling all Youth in Grades 2 to 8

Open to all students (from any school or church) who want to have a safe place to socialize and make new friends, while having fun and learning more about our Catholic faith! We are hard at work planning for our youth ministries for the year ahead, and although plans may need to change or adjust, our faith in Christ and in the young remains strong. We invite families to consider signing up their children for one of our two youth groups. Little Saints (Gr. 2 – 4) and EDGE (Gr. 5 – 8). Discover these programs in the attached brochures and contact Anna at 1415allsaintsyouthministry@gmail.com for more information.

VOLUNTEERS/CATECHISTS

Needed for the Youth & Catechism Programs

We are always looking for talented high school teens, young adults, parents and grandparents, single or married, to serve in our youth ministries and sacramental preparation programs. We believe that a solid ministry is built on faith and relationship: between Jesus Christ, our volunteers, and our youth. Contact Anna at MBetro@archtoronto.org if interested.
