Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me. (Mark 9:37)

The disciples were caught red-handed, and they knew it. Jesus had asked them what they were arguing about, and they had no choice but to tell him: they were caught up in a heated debate about which of them was the greatest disciple. In reply, Jesus told them to focus on being servants, not on becoming great. This probably wasn't the first time he had said something like this to them, and it surely wouldn't be the last!

But then instead of going deeper into his teaching about serving, he pivoted to the theme of receiving a child in his name. So why did Jesus change the subject?

He didn't. He just had a different definition of service than the disciples did—and probably a different definition than we do. Like the disciples, we might think of service in terms of quantity and impact. But that's not how Jesus sees it. If you lead a Bible study with fifty people and your neighbor leads one with five people, that doesn't necessarily make you a better servant. If you are spending all your free time helping out in numerous parish ministries and your neighbor is able to give up only one extra hour a week, that doesn't automatically mean you're more of a servant.

What makes you a servant? Your willingness to welcome Jesus no matter how he comes to you. If you're willing to "waste" your time with a child or any other vulnerable person, you're a servant. If you're willing to imitate Jesus' humility as he washed his disciples' feet, you're a servant. If you're willing to imitate his compassion as he stood up for a woman caught in adultery, you're a servant.

Jesus promised that those who become "the last of all and the servant of all" are the "first" (Mark 9:35). May we all learn how to live in the humility and lowliness of Christ.

"Jesus, give me the heart of a servant. Give me your heart of love."

(Excerpt from The WORD Among Us)

"Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all." This life is the ministry of a priest, sister, brother or deacon. If you feel God is calling you to one such vocation, call Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997.

YOUTH MINISTRY

Calling all Youth in Grades 2 to 8

Open to all students (from any school or church) who want to have a safe place to socialize and make new friends, while having fun and learning more about our Catholic faith! We are hard at work planning for our youth ministries for the year ahead, and although plans may need to change or adjust, our faith in Christ and in the young remains strong. We invite families to consider signing up their children for one of our two youth groups. Little Saints (Gr. 2 – 4) and EDGE (Gr. 5 – 8). Discover these programs in the attached brochures and contact Anna at 1415allsaintsyouthministry@gmail.com for more information.

VOLUNTEERS/CATECHISTS

Needed for the Youth & Catechism Programs

We are always looking for talented high school teens, young adults, parents and grandparents, single or married, to serve in our youth ministries and sacramental preparation programs. We believe that a solid ministry is built on faith and relationship: between Jesus Christ, our volunteers, and our youth. Contact Anna at MBetro@archtoronto.org if interested.
