Beware that your hearts do not become

drowsy from . . . the anxieties of daily life. (Luke 21:34)

Jesus' warning about anxiety is one of the best pieces of advice we could receive right now. We have all heard the statistic that people are more likely to feel worried or depressed during the month of December than at any other time of the year. The "anxieties of daily life" seem amplified as the holidays approach, and all the emphasis on parties and family gatherings can make some people feel more stressed or isolated. It's not surprising to find our hearts feeling a little "drowsy" as we begin the season of Advent (Luke 21:34)!

But Advent isn't meant to be a season of anxiety. It's meant to be a season of expectation and hope. The Lord is near! He is coming to establish his kingdom! For all the warnings Jesus gives in today's Gospel, and for all the dark and foreboding images of the end that he portrays, his promise outweighs them all: "Your redemption is at hand" (Luke 21:28).

So Jesus warns us to guard our hearts so that we can experience our "redemption" more deeply this Advent. He warns us not to let anything burden us so much that it keeps us from turning to him in prayer or talking with him during the day. He knows that if we keep him at a distance, for whatever reason, we run the risk of becoming spiritually drowsy—dull to his Spirit and unable to sense his presence.

There is so much that your heavenly Father wants to give you during this time of grace: inner healing, a deeper sense of peace or joy, a powerful encounter with his mercy, and wisdom and guidance for your life. If you can spend just a few minutes each day with the Mass readings and meditations in this booklet, you'll be opening your heart to these gifts and more.

Don't let Advent slip away. Your redemption is at hand. Stay awake so that you can receive it!

"Jesus, help me to seek you this Advent!"

Annual Christmas Gift Card Drive:

Due to the ongoing Covid pandemic and due to the great success with our Christmas Gift Card drive last year, we encourage our parishioners, who can give during these difficult times, to focus on supporting the needy families within our community in conjunction with the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

The Parish will welcome gift cards/food vouchers from the following stores: METRO, NO FRILLS, WALMART, SHOPPERS DRUG MART, CHAPTERS / INDIGO, DOLLARAMA, to help the 35 plus families that are in need in our community. As a Parish, our goal is to provide each family with food and gift vouchers. These will be delivered to the families the week of December 20th. Gift cards/ Food vouchers can be dropped off in the parish office or placed in the offertory baskets during Masses over the next few weeks.

If you would like to sponsor a family or for more information, please email Angela Vigna at properties@angelavigna.ca or call 416-303-3758. Thank you for your kindness and generosity! Father A. Glaba
