If a foot should say, "Because I am not a hand I do not belong to the body," it does not for this reason belong any less to the body. (1 Corinthians 12:15)

When we read St. Paul's words here about the body of Christ, we often think of the Church as a whole. We think of a beautiful, complex ensemble made of many different parts.

At the same time, though, you might feel that you're an insignificant part—a foot rather than a hand, as St. Paul would say (1 Corinthians 12:15). So many people seem to be more vital to the functioning of the body of Christ than yourself. There's the mom of six kids, on the parish council, who has a son in seminary. Or the successful businessman who generously gave thousands of dollars to fix the church's bell tower. Or the widow who leads a Bible study and never misses daily Mass. Or the popular preacher who has a million followers on YouTube. Are you really as important as these members?

Absolutely yes! Remember, "God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended" (1 Corinthians 12:18, emphasis added). Each member is essential to the proper functioning of the whole body. That includes you. He intended you to be an important part of his body.

How can you be sure? Jesus called you and made you part of his body through Baptism. He knows why he called you—and it's not so that you would be exactly like someone else. He loves you in a way that he loves no one else. That means you are just as dear to his heart as the people who might look like superstars to you.

So try seeing the body of Christ—and yourself—the way God does. Each person has a role to play, and if everyone were the same, the Church wouldn't be all that God wants it to be. God made you exactly as you are to help make his body, the Church, whole.

"Thank you, Lord, that even I am an essential member of your body!"

(Excerpt from The WORD Among Us)

You are the body of Christ; every one of you is a member of it. As a member of the body, we serve different roles. Are you willing to do your part? If God is calling you to be a priest, religious or deacon contact Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-

In Memorium - Dominic Mesiano

Following a lengthy battle with cancer, the All Saints' Parish Community has sadly lost a valued member of our parish community - Dominic Mesiano.

Dominic has been an integral member of the All Saints' Parish Council for well over 20 years. His presence and voice on council made a difference to us all. What set Domenic apart was his spirit of voluntarism, his deep devotion to the Catholic faith and above all else, his charitable, giving heart. No matter the task at hand, Dominic was prompt to assist.

He was highly respected and admired for his convictions and expertise on council as co-chair of finances. He will be dearly missed.

On behalf of all parish council members, both past and present, we express our sincerest condolences to the Mesiano family during this difficult time. May the strength we draw from our faith, be with you all.

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity Service 2022
Sunday, January 23, 2022, at 4 p.m.

January 18 to 25, 2022, marks the annual celebration of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. Each year a host country prepares resources for the Vatican and World Council of Churches. The Middle East Council of Churches has provided the theme for 2022, “We saw the star in the East, and we came to worship him” (Mt.2:2).

The Office for Promoting Christian Unity and Religious Relations with Judaism, along with the Greater Toronto Area Council of Christian Churches has jointly organized a special prayer service to celebrate the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. Join Cardinal Collins and a wide representation of Christian leaders to pray for the restoration of the full visible unity willed by Jesus Christ for the Church. We will pray at Holy Trinity Armenian Apostolic Orthodox Church at 920 Progress Avenue, Scarborough, on Sunday, January 23, 2022, at 4 p.m. All are welcome to attend in person or watch the livestream on Facebook: www.facebook.com/TorontoArmenianChurch.
