Remember "All Saints' Parish" In Your Will

Love is patient, love is kind.

It does not envy,
it does not boast,
it is not proud.

It does not dishonor others,
it is not self-seeking,
it is not easily angered,
it keeps no record of wrongs.

Love does not delight in evil
but rejoices with the truth.

It always protects,
always trusts,
always hopes,
always perseveres.

Love never fails.

—1 Corinthians 13:4-8

4th Sunday in Ordinary Time
January 30th, 2022

At present I know partially; then I shall know fully. (1 Corinthians 13:12)

“God only knows!”
Befuddled, we say these words while rolling our eyes. Hurt, we mutter them through clenched teeth. Despairing, we whisper them with tears in our eyes. The truth is, life is full of mystery. There are some things that only God knows. We may understand them one day, but right now, we don't. We know in part—only God knows fully.

Our readings today remind us that God's ways are far beyond our understanding. Jeremiah knew that he was to be a prophet and understood God's word to the people of Israel at that time (Jeremiah 1:4). But he didn't know that centuries later, his prophecies would be fully realized in Jesus. He knew only in part. Only God knows fully.

In our Gospel, Jesus chided the people in the synagogue for dismissing him as “the son of Joseph” (Luke 4:22). They had heard his remarkable teaching, but they couldn't get past the Jesus they had known for thirty years. They knew only in part. Only God knows fully.

Even St. Paul, whose understanding helped form the Scriptures, acknowledged, “At present I know partially; then I shall know fully, as I am fully known” (1 Corinthians 13:12). As much as Paul had learned about God, he knew that it was only the smallest glimmer of God's goodness and glory. Like Paul, we see indistinctly, dimly, as in a mirror or a darkened room. Only God knows fully.

But God knows you fully, better than you know yourself! Even more, in his wisdom, he knows the plan for your life. He knows what you will face in the future, and he is pouring out grace to prepare you even now.

Life is a mystery. Some things you will only understand in heaven—and that is where faith comes in. Faith in the loving God who knows everything. And one day, he will reveal it all.

“Thank you, Lord, that I am fully known and fully loved.”

Statue of the Holy Family

The Statues of the Holy Family are ready, and they will be shipped this coming month, we are expecting them by early March.

We would like to invite all our parishioners to be part of this project as a sign of our deep devotion and at the same time the Holy Family Statue will remind us about the fundamental value of our own family in today's society.

To the parishioners who already contributed to this project, we want to thank you for your kind and generous support. God bless!
