Sunday of Lent
March
6th, 2022

The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart. (Romans 10:8)

Today we might be thinking about what we want to do for God this Lent: to pray more, fast more, and give more to people in need. And we should! But Lent is not just about what we do for God. In fact, Lent is much more about what God wants to do for us. It's all about God's grace at work within us. And one way that God can work in us is through his word in Scripture.

In the second reading, St. Paul reminds us that God's word isn't beyond our grasp or too hard to understand. Quite the opposite. "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart" (Romans 10:8). God is eager to bless us this Lent as we read his word.

One of the many things God does through Scripture is strengthen us to overcome temptation. We see this played out in today's Gospel. After fasting for forty days, Jesus must have been extremely hungry and tired. So when the evil one tried to entice him to turn away from his Father's plan, Jesus leaned on the word of God. He responded to each temptation with a truth from the Hebrew Scriptures. He drew strength and clarity from the word of God, trusted in it, and let it guide him.

We all feel weak at times, and our sinfulness can easily lead us astray. Add to that the burdens of life and the enticements that swirl around us, and it's no wonder we struggle at times. If Jesus relied on God's word, how much more do we need the grace that flows from the Scriptures.

Lent is the perfect time to seek the Lord in Scripture each day. There, we will find the strength to overcome temptation, the grace to hear God's voice, and the wisdom to guide our lives. And as we read, we can hear his voice telling us, "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart" (Romans 10:8).

"Lord, strengthen me through your word this Lent."

In Memorium – Mrs. Teresa (Sisa) Betro

Mrs. Betro was an active member of All Saints' Parish Community for many years, she volunteered for many events that brought the community together and allowed her to share her faith and devotion.

Mrs. Sisa loved especially helping with the children, being part of the Sacramental preparation and the Youth group. Even during the pandemic and her illness, she continued to warmly greet the children, redirect them to sanitize their hands.

On behalf of our Parish community, we want to express our sincerest condolences to the Betro family during this difficult time. May the strength we draw from our faith, be with you all.
