*Peter . . . said to him, "Lord, you know everything."
 (John 21:17)*

Did you know that stained glass windows get their name from the stains that color them? Artisans add impurities such as metallic salts to the glass, which produce the rich, deep colors. These glass panes lift our hearts whenever we see them. But when the sunlight illuminates them, their true splendor appears.

Peter probably wasn't feeling very "splendid" during his conversation with Jesus in today's Gospel. We can imagine his dismay when Jesus asked, "Do you love me?" not once, but three times. Peter could not have missed the link between Jesus' threefold questioning and Peter's threefold denial. His flaws and failures stood front and center for everyone to see. It was as if a spotlight were shining on Peter and his "impurities." He could only reply, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you" (John 21:17).

How remarkable that Jesus does not berate or even correct Peter! Quite the opposite, he immediately commands him to feed his sheep. Peter's denials didn't disqualify him from following Jesus or serving him. Rather, they served as lessons in humility and prepared him for his mission.

We all fall short from time to time as we try to follow the Lord. Our weaknesses and sins hinder us from loving and obeying Jesus as we should. But like Peter, we can learn from our failures and humbly return to the Lord for the grace to begin again. Nothing disqualifies us from our call to be Jesus' disciples and feed his sheep. Just as impurities in stained glass bring forth beauty when the sun shines upon it, our weaknesses can show the Lord's grace when we come into his light. So let's not stay in the darkness counting our stains. Let's come into the light and let it shine through us.

*"Lord, you know everything; shine through me today."
 (Excerpt from The WORD Among Us)*

This weekend is ShareLife
 Sunday

"ShareLife is the way the rubber hits the road. This is how we validate the legitimacy and integrity of our Christian life: not by the words we speak, but by the love we share, in practical ways. That's what we do with ShareLife." – Cardinal Thomas Collins.

Our parishioners have contributed $52,005.00 toward our goal of $145,000.00. Thank you for supporting ShareLife! If you wish to make a contribution, please bring it to the office or place it in the collection basket at Mass on Sunday, or online at <https://sharelife.org/>

How am I being called to feed the lambs of Jesus? Could it be as an ordained or consecrated person? If God is calling you, to be a priest, religious or deacon, contact Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-

0997. www.vocationstoronto.ca

St. Vincent De Paul Program

Our Parish runs a St. Vincent De Paul Program to support families and individuals in need; we provide food vouchers to help them with groceries and other basic items. If you or anyone you know would like to be assisted by this program, please contact the parish office. The SVDP program provides help every 4 months and especially during Christmas time; the only requirement is to live within our Parish boundaries. The information collected is strictly confidential.

Jesus with Us: Reflections of Joy Program on radiomaria.ca

Repeated every Thursday at 9 pm, Saturday at 2 pm

The topic for the month of May: Journey from Lent to Easter, Now What? Please join parishioners Mariangela and Nick as they discuss ways to continue to celebrate the Easter season. We pray the Via Lucis (Way of Light), look at why May is considered the month of Mary, the meaning of the Holy Spirit and ways to celebrate Pentecost.

Catholic Education Week:
April 30/May 1, 2022
“Rebuild, Renew, Restore Together”

During Catholic Education Week (April 30/May 1, 2022), we give thanks for the gift of publicly funded Catholic Education in our province. Catholic schools foster supportive communities where young people can experience the joy of God’s love and understand the Christian mission in the world. Together, our parishes, educators and families sow the seeds of faith with the next generation of Catholics, challenging them to live as joyful and faithful disciples. To affirm your support of Catholic education and sign-up for email updates, visit: www.togetherinfaith.ca.

All Saints’ Parish Mother’s Day Special Liturgy SUNDAY MAY 8TH

Honor all the wonderful women (living and deceased) in your life this Mother's Day by offering them this prayerful gift.

For an offering of your choice, you can have a flower placed in a mother's honor near the altar at All Saints’ Parish on Mother's Day so that everyone can pray for them. The name of your mother and your personal message will be placed on the Sanctuary. You can order more than one flower if there are several women you would like us to pray for.

Invite them, if still living, to come to the Masses where all Mothers will receive a special memento of that day.

HOW TO ORDER: THIS weekend, April 30th/May 1st - after each Mass, Anna Betro and Verginia Aiello will be sitting at a designated table in the parish hall to accept your requests and donations.

This will be the only weekend that requests will be taken. All proceeds will benefit the various Programs of the Parish.
