The Lamb of God. (John 1:29)

When you hear John the Baptist call Jesus the “Lamb of God,” you might picture a cute baby sheep leaping in a pasture or happily resting on its shepherd’s shoulders. But that can be confusing. How can Jesus be that kind of lamb?

Israelites in Jesus’ time would have understood what John was getting at. They would likely have called to mind the feast of Passover. Each year during that feast, every Jewish family slaughtered and ate an unblemished lamb in remembrance of God bringing his people out of slavery in Egypt (Exodus 12).

They might also have thought about Isaiah’s song of the Suffering Servant, who, like a lamb, silently allowed himself to be led to the slaughter while he bore the guilt of us all (Isaiah 53:6-7).

Finally, they might have remembered when God asked Abraham to sacrifice his beloved son, Isaac. As Isaac prepared the wood for the sacrifice, he asked why there was no sheep to offer. Abraham replied, “God will provide the sheep for the burnt offering” (Genesis 22:8).

John likely had all this in mind when he called Jesus the Lamb of God: Jesus was the sacrifice, provided by God, who would silently offer his life to redeem us all.

Contemplating Jesus as the Lamb of God gives us an infinite number of reasons to worship him. We can praise him for delivering us from enslavement to sin. We can ponder what he silently bore to redeem us. We can bow to him as the perfect sacrifice, provided for us by God himself. Jesus is so much bigger, so much more committed to us, so much more glorious in his mercy than we could ever imagine!

At Mass today, we will be invited to “Behold the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.” How happy we are to be called to his supper, to behold him and to receive him in the Eucharist!

“Lord Jesus, Lamb of God, I worship you!”
