Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time February 12th, 2023

Whoever obeys and teaches these commandments will be called greatest in the kingdom of heaven. (Matthew 5:19)

What would our world be like if everyone lived out the teachings that Jesus gives us in today's Gospel? It would be a world where people work out their differences peacefully. Where husbands and wives are always faithful to one another. Where no one tells a lie or engages in dishonest deals.

Such a world might seem impossible, but this is the world that God has always intended for his people. It's the kingdom that Jesus announced was "at hand" at the beginning of his ministry (Matthew 3:2). It's the kingdom that he ushered in by his death and resurrection. If it seems hidden in some ways, that's because it's still under construction! We won't experience it fully until Jesus comes again.

But that doesn't mean we can't at least begin to experience God's kingdom today. In fact, God is calling us to build the kingdom. How? We can begin by taking Jesus' Sermon on the Mount as a blueprint for our lives. He calls us to pray and not worry about our daily needs. To care for the poor. To forgive as God has forgiven us. To love our enemies. To turn the other cheek. When we do these things, we make God's kingdom visible.

Because Jesus' teachings can be challenging, we might try to make excuses for ourselves or think that only the saints can obey them. But the more we try to live out Jesus' words, the more his Spirit fills our efforts with his divine grace—and the more we come to realize that it doesn't depend only on us, but also on God's power within us.

Today at Mass, ask the Lord how you might bring God's kingdom to the places where you live and work. Rely on his teachings to guide you and the Spirit to empower you. Above all, stay alert, because opportunities to build the kingdom of God will surely come your way!

"Jesus, may your kingdom come through me and all your people!"

Ash Wednesday Mass schedule
February 22, 2023

8:15 am English Morning Mass

7:00 pm Mass (English/Italian)

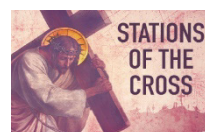

FASTING AND ABSTINENCE

Abstinence and Fasting are to be observed on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday

Abstinence is to be observed on all Fridays through the year, but Catholics may substitute this practice with special acts of charity or piety on the other Fridays—it remains to be observed on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

Abstinence refrains from consumption of meat. This law pertains to everyone over fourteen years of age.

Fasting prescribes that only one meal be taken in a day, but it does not forbid taking more nourishment in the morning and in the evening, according to the needs of each individual. Fasting binds those between eighteen and sixty years of age. Individual cases, for just reason (e.g., the sick), receive dispensation from the obligation.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

We will be praying the Stations of the Cross at 7:00 p.m. on Fridays of the following dates: February 24, March 3, 10, 17, 24 and 31. All are welcome!

The topic for February is Surrendering and Abandonment to Jesus

Listen Live on radiomaria.ca
Thur., at 9 pm and Sat., at 2 pm

Please join parishioners Mariangela and Nick on their program Jesus with Us: Reflections of Joy as they reflect on surrendering all to Jesus, letting go and letting God. What does it mean to surrender to God? What are some things that should be abandoned and actions to take? What are some reasons why we don't surrender, what we can do about it and ways that Jesus and Mother Mary surrendered? These questions and more will be answered, interspersed with prayers on surrendering to God's will.

Shrove Tuesday

Theme: Faith & Reason Event - Cathonomics & Integral Ecology. Speaker: Anthony Annett, PhD Thur., February 23 from 7 to 9 p.m. The main tenets of socialism, community of goods, must be utterly rejected, since it only injures those who it would seem meant to benefit, and is directly contrary to the natural rights of mankind; "once the demands of necessity and propriety have been met, the rest that one owns belongs to the poor, and "based on a purely economic conception of man, the system of neoliberalism considers profit and the law of the market as its only parameters, to the detriment of the dignity of and the respect due to individuals and peoples.

St. Augustine's Seminary Lay Formation Program:
Topic: Lenten Retreat: A Spirituality for Catholic Teachers
Saturday, March 4 – 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.
IN-PERSON & VIRTUAL EVENT

In collaboration with the Archdiocese of Toronto's St. Monica Institute and the Toronto Catholic Teachers' Guild, we are pleased to offer a Lenten retreat day that will draw us into the important work of education with presenter Deacon Doug McManaman, Chaplain of the Toronto chapter of the Catholic Teachers' Guild. A spirituality for Catholic teachers certainly speaks most directly to those who work within the more formal community of Catholic education, but the theme of this retreat will speak to all Catholics, for all of us live and participate in the world of Catholic education, and its critical importance touches us all. We extend a warm invitation to all for this day of reflection, with a particular welcome to all Catholic teachers, administrators, support staff, and to all who work in the homeschooling community.

COST: In-person - $50; Online - $20. CONTACT: Chere MacLean 416-269-3445 chere.maclea@utoronto.ca
